Minoru Hokari (1971–2004)

A path breaking scholar and inspiring colleague, Minoru made outstanding contributions towards 'cross-culturalising' historical practice and towards developing a respectful collaborative research strategy with Indigenous Australians.

He was a graduate of Hitotsubashi University (MEc 1996) and The Australian National University (PhD 2001), Minoru conducted fieldwork amongst Gurindji elders, who he acknowledged as exceptional historians in their own right.

The scholarship in Minoru Hokari's honour is intended to assist a postgraduate student to conduct fieldwork or related research in Australian indigenous history.
